

VIRTUAL EXPO RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. PURPOSE OF THE VIRTUAL EXPO ENGAGEMENT PLATFORM ("SOLUTIONS HUB")

ISTELive 21 Virtual is an educational conference and expo providing relevant content to the edtech community. The solutions hub portion of the virtual platform is a vital element of this conference, and serves to connect attendees and industry participants through a digital interface both during and well after the conference comes to a close. The purpose of the event is educational in nature. Any sessions or demonstrations led by the exhibitor should be focused on education and should not be sales pitches. It is permissible to post product pricing and order information as part of resources that reside on organization profiles, but order taking or pricing information cannot be shared as part of demonstrations or in any content delivery provided by the exhibitor.

2. GENERAL TERMS

The ISTE Live 21 virtual conference, solutions engagement platform, and supporting advertising/marketing opportunities, in some cases, require the submission of photos, videos and other graphic assets by the exhibitor to Exhibit Management for reproduction throughout the virtual conference experience. Specific guidelines for any and all items will be provided to each participating exhibitor depending upon the type of engagement purchased. Any deviations from these specifications may compromise the quality of the reproduction and may result in increased costs. The conference and Exhibit Management are not responsible for the quality of reproduction when specifications are not adhered to and reserve the right to alter materials received without approval that are at variance with submission guidelines. All submissions will be reviewed by Exhibit Management and ISTE prior to digital publication. The ISTE Live 21 virtual conference and all supplemental purchased digital advertisements will be available in an archive format through December 31, 2021.

The ISTE and ISTE Live 21 virtual conference name, logo and acronym are proprietary and may not be used in signs, advertising, promotions or on any product literature either inside or outside the exhibit hall. This rule applies before, during and after the ISTE Live 21 virtual conference unless prior authorization has been received from the ISTE.

Exhibitor grants to ISTE a non-exclusive, nontransferable, revocable license to use the name, logo and acronym of the exhibitor solely in connection with the ISTE Live 21 virtual conference. All uses of the name, logo and acronym of the exhibitor shall be determined by ISTE in its sole discretion.

All promotional plans must be submitted to Exhibit Management for approval. Distribution of any promotional material must be limited to the virtual booth space of the event platform unless otherwise approved by Exhibit Management through official opportunities. Exhibitor shall refrain from any action that will distract attendees from attendance at the virtual conference during open hours. Chat engagement: Participation in community chat channels is encouraged in order to foster engagement. Any promotional content is limited to designated "promotions" channels only. Sending unsolicited mass chat messages through networking tools is considered spamming and is prohibited. All chat formats will be moderated for appropriate content and use across the virtual platform. ISTE and Exhibit Management reserve the right to suspend any users not aligning with engagement objectives.

Further, exhibitor agrees to pay all attorney's fees and costs incurred by the ISTE parties arising out of or in any way related to this application and exhibit.
